43. Section 64 of the principal enactment as amended by Act, No. 24 of 1987 is hereby further amended by the repeal of subsection (2) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following subsection :—

Amendment of section 64 of the principal enactment.

“(2) Each counting officer shall deliver to the chief counting officer in charge of the ward appointed under subsection (3) of section 59A, the packets containing unused ballot papers, spoilt ballot papers, tendered ballot papers, marked copies of the electoral list, counterfoils of the ballot papers issued, tendered votes list, the list of voters to whom ballot papers were not issued under section 53A, the ballot paper account, written statement of the number of votes given to each recognized political party on independent proup and the record of the counting of votes under subsection (2) of section 62, together with the sealed packets referred to in subsection (1).”.

44. Section 65 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Replacement of section 65 of the principal enactment.

“Declaration of candidate obtaining highest votes as a member. 65 (1) Upon receipt of the documents referred to in section 64, the chief counting officer in charge of the ward appointed under subsection (3) of section 59A, shall declare as elected as member of the ward, the name of the candidate belonging to the recognized

5 political party or the independent group which obtained the highest number of votes in that ward and who was nominated by such recognized political party or independent group in its nomination paper as its candidates for that ward. He shall also declare the number of votes received by all the other recognized political parties and independent groups, which contested the election in that ward.

10 (2) Where an equality of votes is found to exist between any two or more recognized political parties or two or more independent groups, and the addition of a vote would entitle the nominated candidate of one such 15 recognized political party or independent group to be elected, the determination of the recognized political party or independent group to which such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given, shall be made by 20 lot drawn in the presence of the chief counting officer, in such manner as he shall determine.

25 (3) Upon the declaration of the candidate who is elected as the member of a ward under subsection (1), the chief counting officer concerned shall deliver to the returning officer all the documents referred to in subsection (2) of section 64, which are in his possession.”.

45. Section 65A of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

30 “Declaration of members to be elected to a multi member ward. 65A. (1) In the case of a multi member ward, the candidates to be declared as elected members of that ward, shall be based on the number of votes polled by each recognized political party and independent group which

Replacement of section 65A of the principal enactment.

5 contested the election in such ward, the candidate of the recognized political party or the independent group, as the case may be, which polled the highest number of votes being declared first as an elected member for that ward and the balance number of members required to be elected as members of that ward, being declared accordingly.

10 (2) If due to any reason whatsoever, a single recognized political party or independent group alone has contested at an election in any multi member ward, the candidates to be declared elected as members of such multi member ward shall be nominated by the secretary of the recognized political party or the leader of the independent group, as the case may be, from among the persons whose names appear in the list of additional persons included in the nomination paper submitted by such
20 recognized political party or independent group, as the case may be.”.

46. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 65A of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 65B of that enactment :—

Insertion of new section 65B in the principal enactment.

25 “Candidates entitled to be returned to represent electors who have not secured any representation.
30 65B. (1) Upon the declaration under section 65 of all the members elected for all the wards of the electoral area, the number of members for that local authority to be returned under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Urban Councils Ordinance or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be,
35 shall be apportioned in the manner hereinafter provided for in this section.

(2) The total number of votes received by all the candidates of each recognized political party and independent group, excluding the votes polled by:—

5 (a) those candidates who were declared elected as members of each ward under section 65; and

10 (b) those candidates of each recognized political party and independent group, who received less than one-twentieth of the total number of valid votes polled in the ward in which such candidate contested,

15 (hereinafter in this section referred to as “balance candidates”), shall then be added and the percentage of the aggregate, to the total valid votes polled by all the candidates who are elected to the several wards of the local authority together with the votes polled by the 20 balance candidates shall be the criteria for determining the number of members to be returned in terms of subsection (1).

(3) The number of members to be returned in terms of subsection (1) shall, where the 25 percentage determined under subsection (2):—

(a) exceeds thirty per centum, shall be thirty per centum of the total number of members to be elected to all the wards of that local authority area, under this section; or 30 (b) is less than thirty per centum, shall be equal to that percentage of the number of members to be elected to all the wards of that local authority area, under this section.

5 (4) Where the number constituting thirty per centum referred to in subsection (3) is an integer and fraction, the integer shall be deemed to be the number which shall constitute such thirty per centum, for the purpose of that subsection.

10 (5) The number of members to be returned as determined under subsection (3), shall be apportioned among the recognized political parties and independent groups which contested in that election, by dividing the aggregate of the total valid votes polled by the balance candidates by the number of members entitled to be returned as determined under that subsection. The number resulting from such division (any fraction not being taken into account) shall hereinafter in this section be referred to as the “qualifying number”.

20 (6) The aggregate of the votes received by the balance candidates of each recognized political party and independent group, shall then be divided by the qualifying number, in order to ascertain the number of persons entitled to be returned as members of that local authority in terms of Subsection (1) by such recognized political party or independent group, as the case may be. Where the number ascertained by this method is an integer and a fraction, the integer shall be deemed to be the number for the purpose of this subsection.

35 (7) Where at the conclusion of ascertaining the number of members to be returned by any recognized political party or independent group on the method specified in subsection (5), there remains a further number of members to be returned under the proportional representation system as determined under subsection (3), such remaining number shall be allocated on the basis of the highest fraction received by each recognized political party or independent group, as ascertained under subsection (6).

5 (8) The assistant returning officer shall inform the secretary of the recognized political party or the leader of the independent group, as the case may be, which is entitled to return a member as ascertained under subsection (5), of the number of members that such recognized political party or independent group, as the case may be, is entitled to return and request such secretary or leader, as the case may be, to nominate from among the persons, whose names were included in the nomination paper under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Urban Councils Ordinance or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be, the names of persons who are to be returned as members under that subsection.

25 (9) The names of the candidates who are returned under this section shall thereafter be declared by the assistant returning officer of the respective electoral area.”.

47. Section 66 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

30 “Publication of the result. 66. (1) Upon the declaration of the candidates elected as members of each ward under section 65 and of those candidates returned under section 65A of this Ordinance in respect of a local authority, the assistant returning officer of the electoral area of such local authority shall :—

35 (a) publish a notice specifying the names of all the candidates elected or returned as members of the local authority; and

Replacement of section 66 of the principal enactment.

(b) report to the Commissioner the result through the election officer of the district in which the electoral area is situated.

5 (2) The Commissioner shall upon receipt of the report of the result, cause the names of the candidates elected to be members of that local authority, to be published in the Gazette.”.

10 48. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 66 of the principal enactment and shall have effect as sections 66A, 66B, 66C, 66D, 66E, 66F and 66G of that enactment :—

Insertion of new sections 66A, 66B, 66C, 66D, 66E, 66F and 66G in the principal enactment.

15 “Filling of vacancies in local authorities. 66A. (1) Where the office of a member of a local authority falls vacant under the provisions of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, Urban Councils Ordinance or the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be, the returning officer appointed for the electoral area in which such local authority is situated, shall, where such vacancy is in respect of a member—

20 (a) elected for any ward in that electoral area by ballot, request the secretary to the recognized political party or the leader of the independent group, as the case may be, to which such member belongs, to nominate any other person who is qualified under section 8 of this Ordinance to be elected as a member of local authority to fill that vacancy in the ward in which the vacancy has occurred; or

25 (b) returned under section 65A of this Ordinance then, depending on whether the candidate whose office fell vacant is from a recognized political party or an independent group, call upon the Secretary of the recognized political party or the leader of the independent group, as the case may be, to nominate a person to fill such vacancy from among those persons nominated by such recognized political party or the independent group under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Urban Councils Ordinance or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be and where no person remains to be so nominated the returning officer shall request the secretary of the recognized political party or independent group, as the case may be, to nominate a person qualified to be elected as a member in term of section 8 of this Ordinance to fill such vacancy.

(2) The candidate elected to fill a vacancy of any member of a local authority under subsection (1), shall hold office only for the unexpired period of the term of office of the member whom he succeeds.

66B. (1) Where any recognized political party or independent group has obtained fifty per centum or more of the total number of seats in a local authority, the Commissioner shall upon the publication by the Commissioner under subsection (2) of section 66 of names of the candidates elected as members of such local authority, call upon the secretary of such recognized political party or the leader of that independent group, as the case may be, to determine from among members who belong

Declaration of Mayor, where a recognized political party or independent group receives over fifty per centum of the votes.

5 to such recognized political party or the independeent group, as the case may be, the members who shall be declared as the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor, respectively, of such local authority.

10 (2) Where the office of Mayor or Deputy Mayor as determined under subsection (1) of this section falls vacant during the term of office of such local authority, the Commissioner shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, call upon the secretary of the 15 recognized political party or the leader of the independent group, as the case, may be, to which such Mayor or the Deputy Mayor belonged, to determine the members from among the members of that local authority who 20 belong to such recognized political party or the independent group, as the case may be, who shall become the new Mayor or the Deputy Mayor of the local authority and communicate the same to the Commissioner. Upon receipt of such determination, the Commissioner shall 25 declare the member named in such determination, as the new Mayor or the Deputy Mayor, as the case may be, of that local authority.

30 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, where a vacancy occurs in the office of Mayor as a result of the Mayor being deemed to have resigned his office under section 215A of the Municipal Councils Ordinance or section 178A of the Urban Councils Ordinance or section 169 of 35 the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987, as the case may be, and such vacancy is filled in accordance with the procedure specified in that subsection, and the member so appointed to 5 fill such vacancy himself resigns thereafter from his office as Mayor under the sections referred to above, the vacancy so created shall not be filled following the procedure specified in (2) of this section. In such an instance, the local authority in which the vacancy in the office of Mayor has occurred for the second time shall be deemed to be dissolved and the Minister shall appoint a Commissioner for the local 10 authority concerned, who shall hold office as a Commissioner, for the balance period remaining of the term of office of the members of such local authority.

15 First meeting of the local authority. 66C. (1) Where any recognized political party or independent group has obtained less than fifty per centum of the total number of seats in a local authority, the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor of such local authority shall be elected at the first meeting of such local authority.

20 (2) The first meeting of the Council shall be convened by the Commissioner of Local Government within one week of the publication by the Commissioner under subsection (2) of section 66, of the names of the candidates
25 elected and returned as members of any local authority, by notice published in that behalf. Such notice shall be given not less than seven days before the date fixed for the meeting and shall be:—

30 (a) published in the Gazette and in one newspaper each, in all the three languages; and

(b) dispatched by registered post to each of the members of that Council.

5 (3) Every notice published under subsection (1), shall specify the date, time and place of the first meeting and the date to be so specified shall be a date within one month next succeeding the date appointed for the commencement of the term of office of the Council or in the case of a Council elected as successor to a Council going out of office 10 otherwise than by effluxion of time, within one month next succeeding the date on which the election or nomination of the members of the new Council is completed.

15 (4) Where for any reason the meeting is not held on the date specified in the notice published under subsection (1), the Commissioner of Local Government may, by further notice or notices published in that 20 behalf, convene the meeting for any other date, so however that such other date is within one month next succeeding the date specified in the notice published under subsection (2).

66D. (1) The first meeting and any other meeting that may be convened under section 66c until the election of a Mayor, shall be presided over by the Commissioner of Local Government. (in this section referred to as the "presiding officer").

30 (2) The members of the Council shall at its first meeting, elect one of their members to be the Mayor of the Council.

35 (3) The election of the Mayor of the Council under subsection (2) shall not take place, unless there is present at such meeting a quorum consisting of not less than half the membership of the Council.

(4) Any member of the Council may, with his consent, be proposed and seconded for election as Mayor by any other member present at the meeting.

5 (5) Where only one members name is proposed and seconded for election as Mayor, the presiding officer of the meeting at which the election takes place, shall declare that member elected as the Mayor.

10 (6) Where two or more member's names are proposed and seconded for election as Mayor, the mode of election shall be by open voting, and the presiding officer shall take the votes by calling the name of each member present
15 and asking him how he desires to vote and recording the votes accordingly. A member may decline to vote and in such a case, the presiding officer shall record the fact of such member declining to vote.

20 (7) At the end of the proceedings for the election of a Mayor, the presiding officer shall declare the result of the voting.

25 Where no member obtains the required number of votes.
30 66E. (1) Where the names of more than two members are proposed and seconded for election as mayor and no single member receives at the first voting more votes than the aggregate of the votes received by the remaining members, one member shall be excluded from the election as hereinafter provided, and the voting shall proceed in the same manner, one member being excluded from the election after each subsequent voting, until a member receives more votes than the aggregate of the votes received by the remaining members at that voting or until 35 voting in respect of two members only is held and completed, as the case may be.

(2) The manner in which a member may be excluded from the election as referred to in subsection (1), shall be as follows :—

5 (a) if the number of votes received by one member is lower than the number of votes received by each of the remaining members, the candidate receiving the lowest number shall be excluded; and

10 (b) if each of all the members receive an equal number of votes or if each of two or more members receives an equal number of votes which is less than the number of votes received by the remaining member or each of the remaining members, one of the members receiving the equal number of votes shall be excluded and the determination as to which of the members is to be excluded, shall be made by lot to be drawn in the presence of the presiding officer, in such manner as he shall determine.

25 (3) Where there are two members at any voting and the number of votes cast is equally divided and the addition of one vote would entitle one of the members to be elected as Mayor, the determination of the member to whom the additional vote shall be deemed to have been given, shall be made by lot to be drawn in the presence of the presiding officer, in such manner as he shall determine.

35 Election of Deputy Mayor. 66F. (1) The first Deputy Mayor of a local authority shall be elected at the first meeting of the Council held under section 66C, presided over by the newly elected Mayor.

5 (2) The provisions of sections 66c and 66D shall apply in respect of the election of a Deputy Mayor, in like manner as though every reference in that section to “Mayor” were a reference to “Deputy Mayor”.

10 Vacancy in the office of Mayor or Deputy Mayor. 66G. Whenever the office of Mayor or Deputy Mayor of a Council falls vacant during the term of office of such Council, the Commissioner of Local Government shall, within two weeks of his receiving notice from the Council of such vacancy and by notice or notices served in accordance with the provisions of subsections (2) or (4) of section 66C, convene a meeting for the election of a new Mayor or Deputy Mayor, as the case may be, and the date specified for the meeting in such notice or notices shall be such as to ensure that the new Mayor or Deputy Mayor, as the case may be, is elected within six weeks next succeeding the occurrence of the vacancy.”.
